Where will you deploy the most capital?

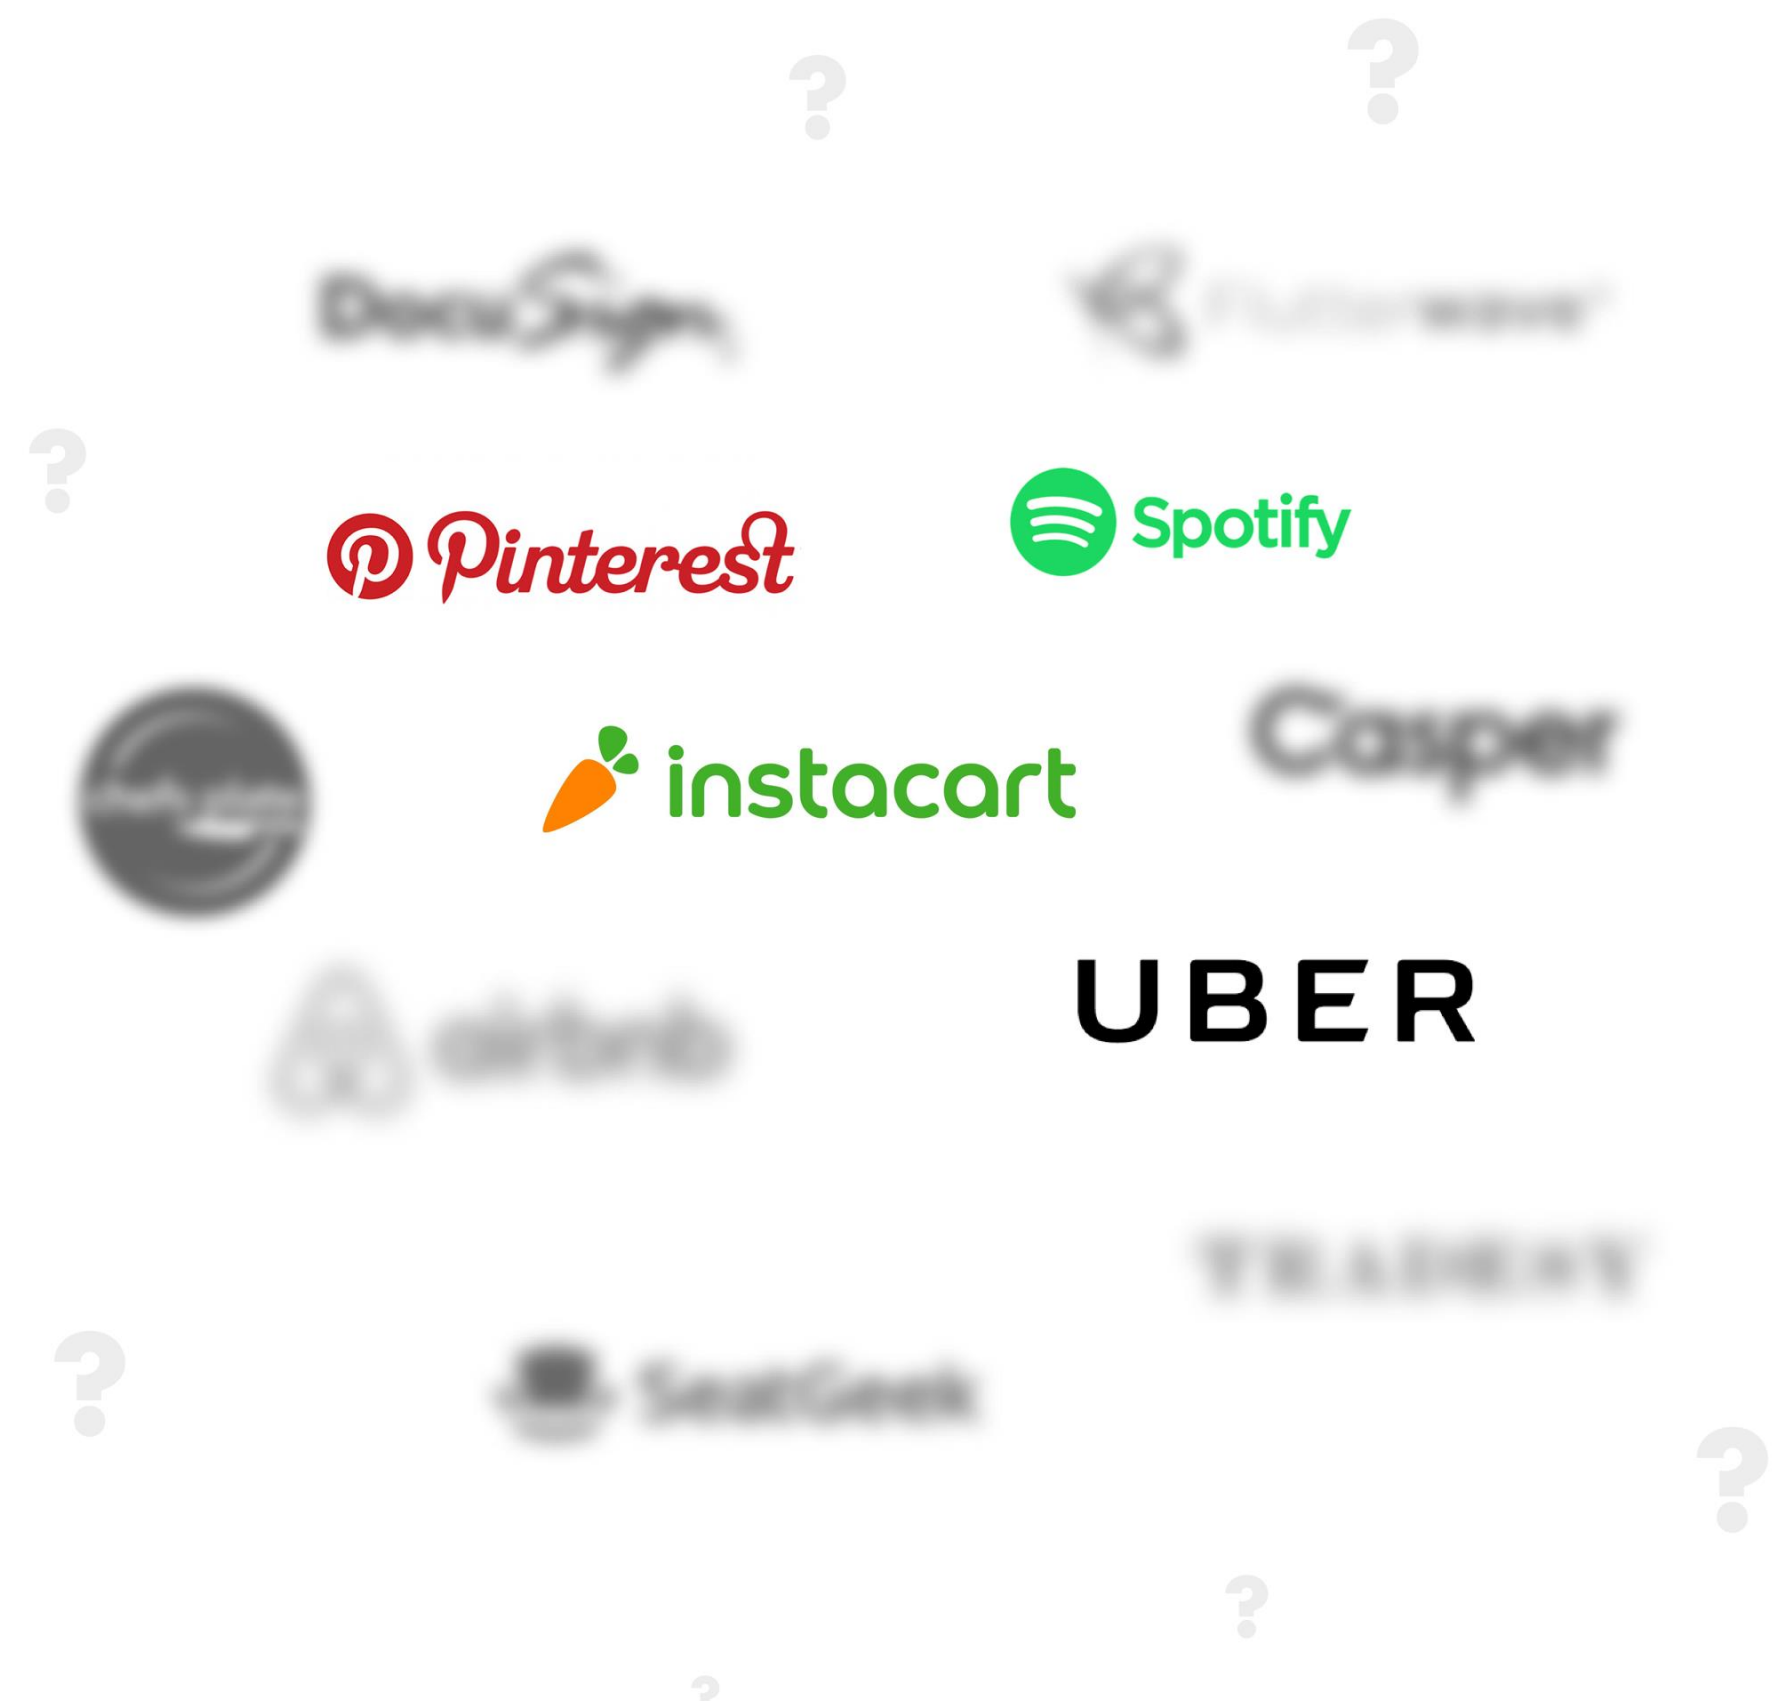

Where will you deploy the most capital? (Continued)

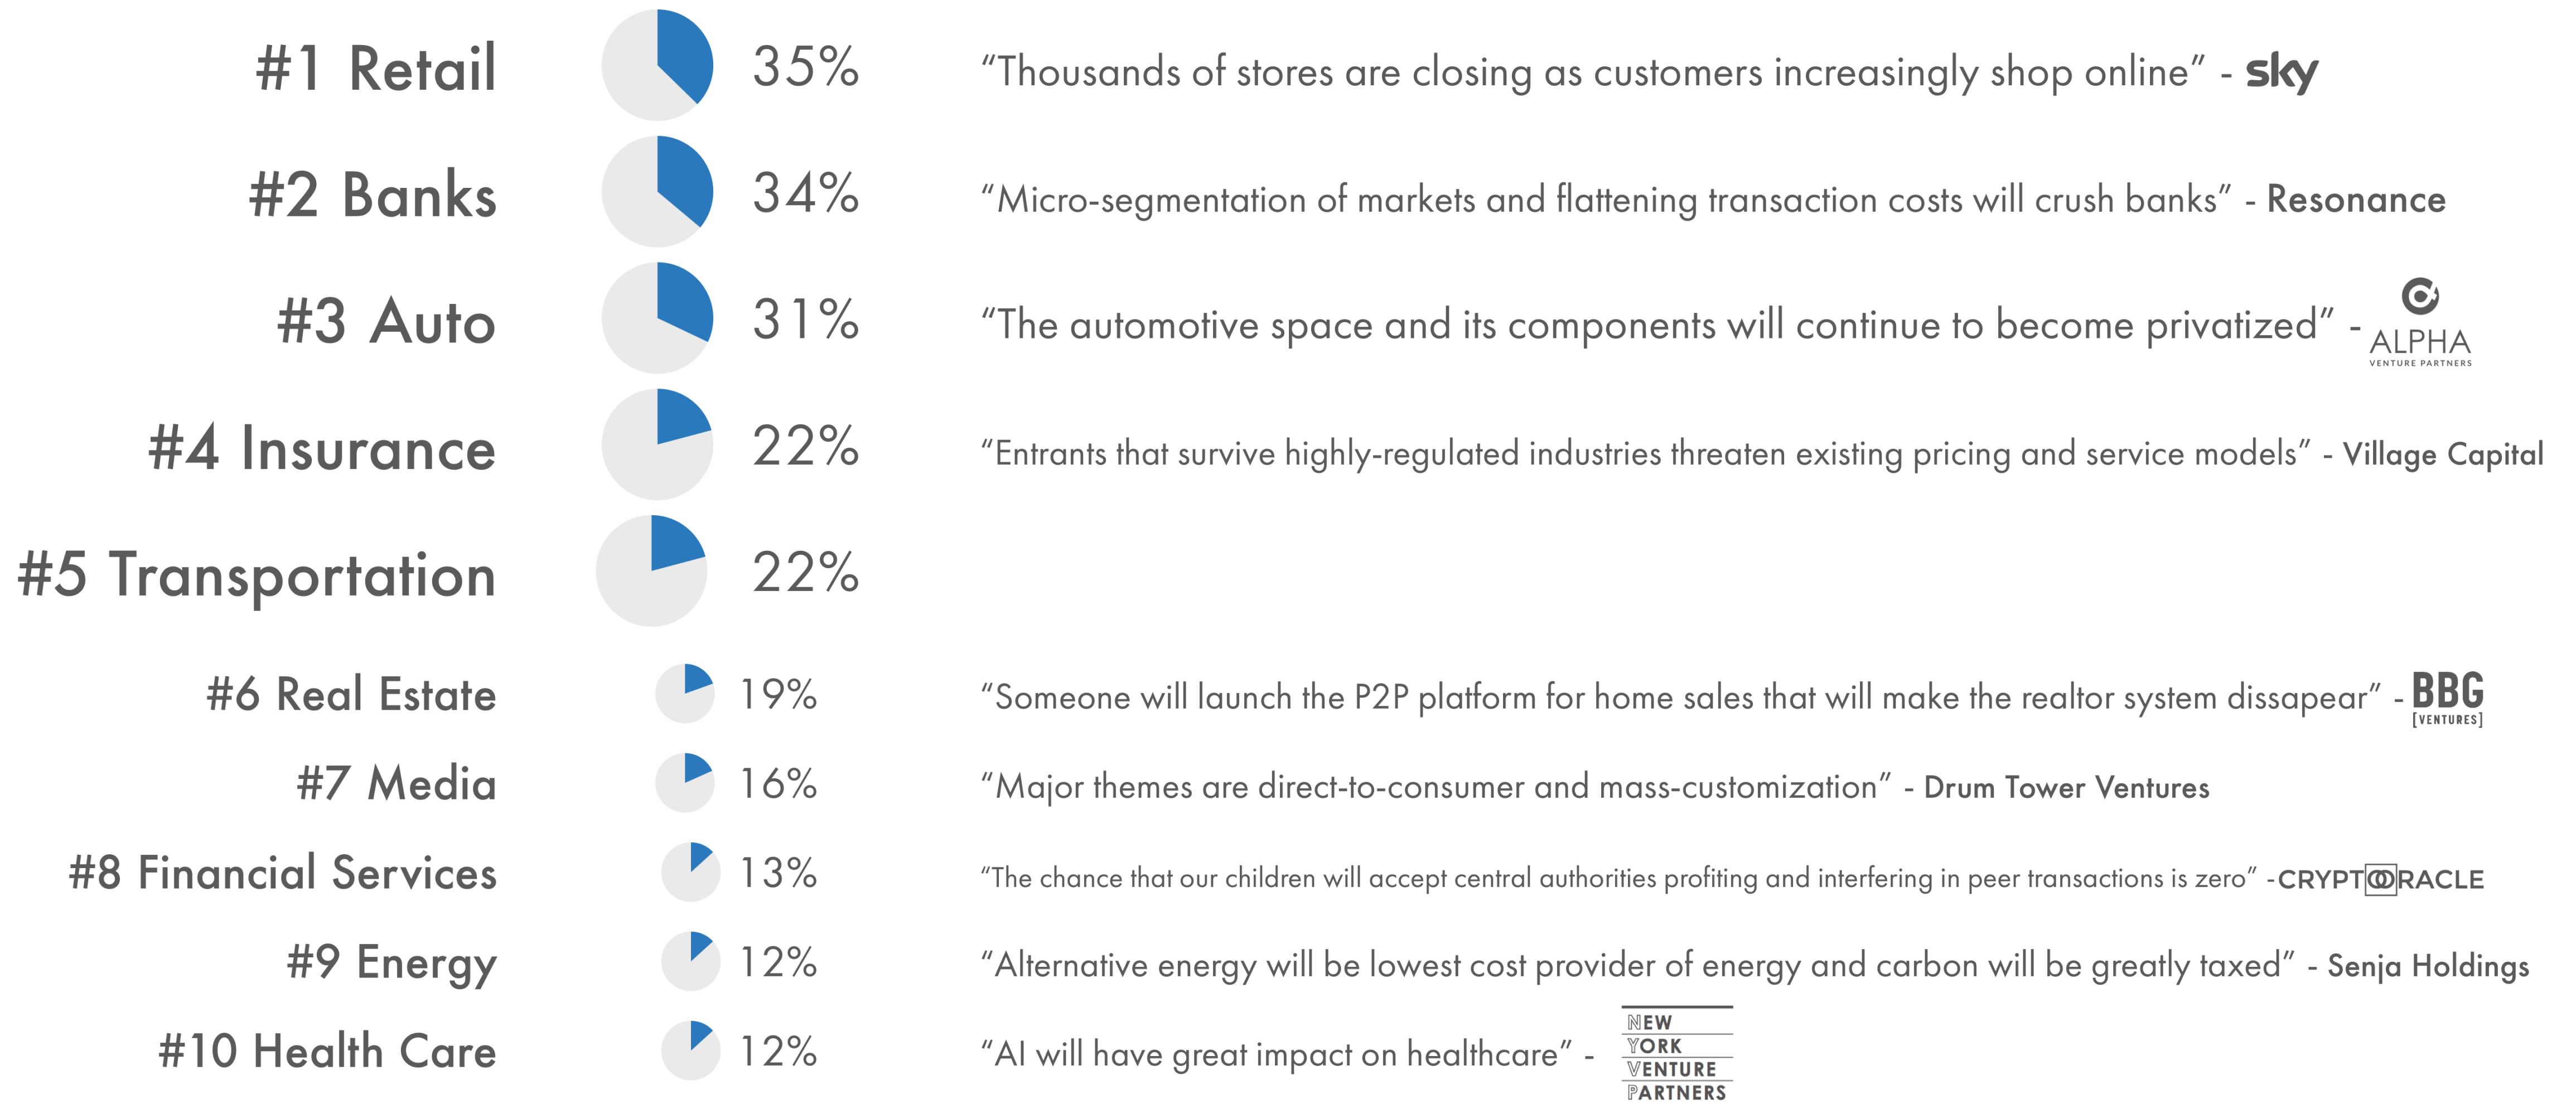

By 2022, how many companies in your portfolio are likely to IPO?

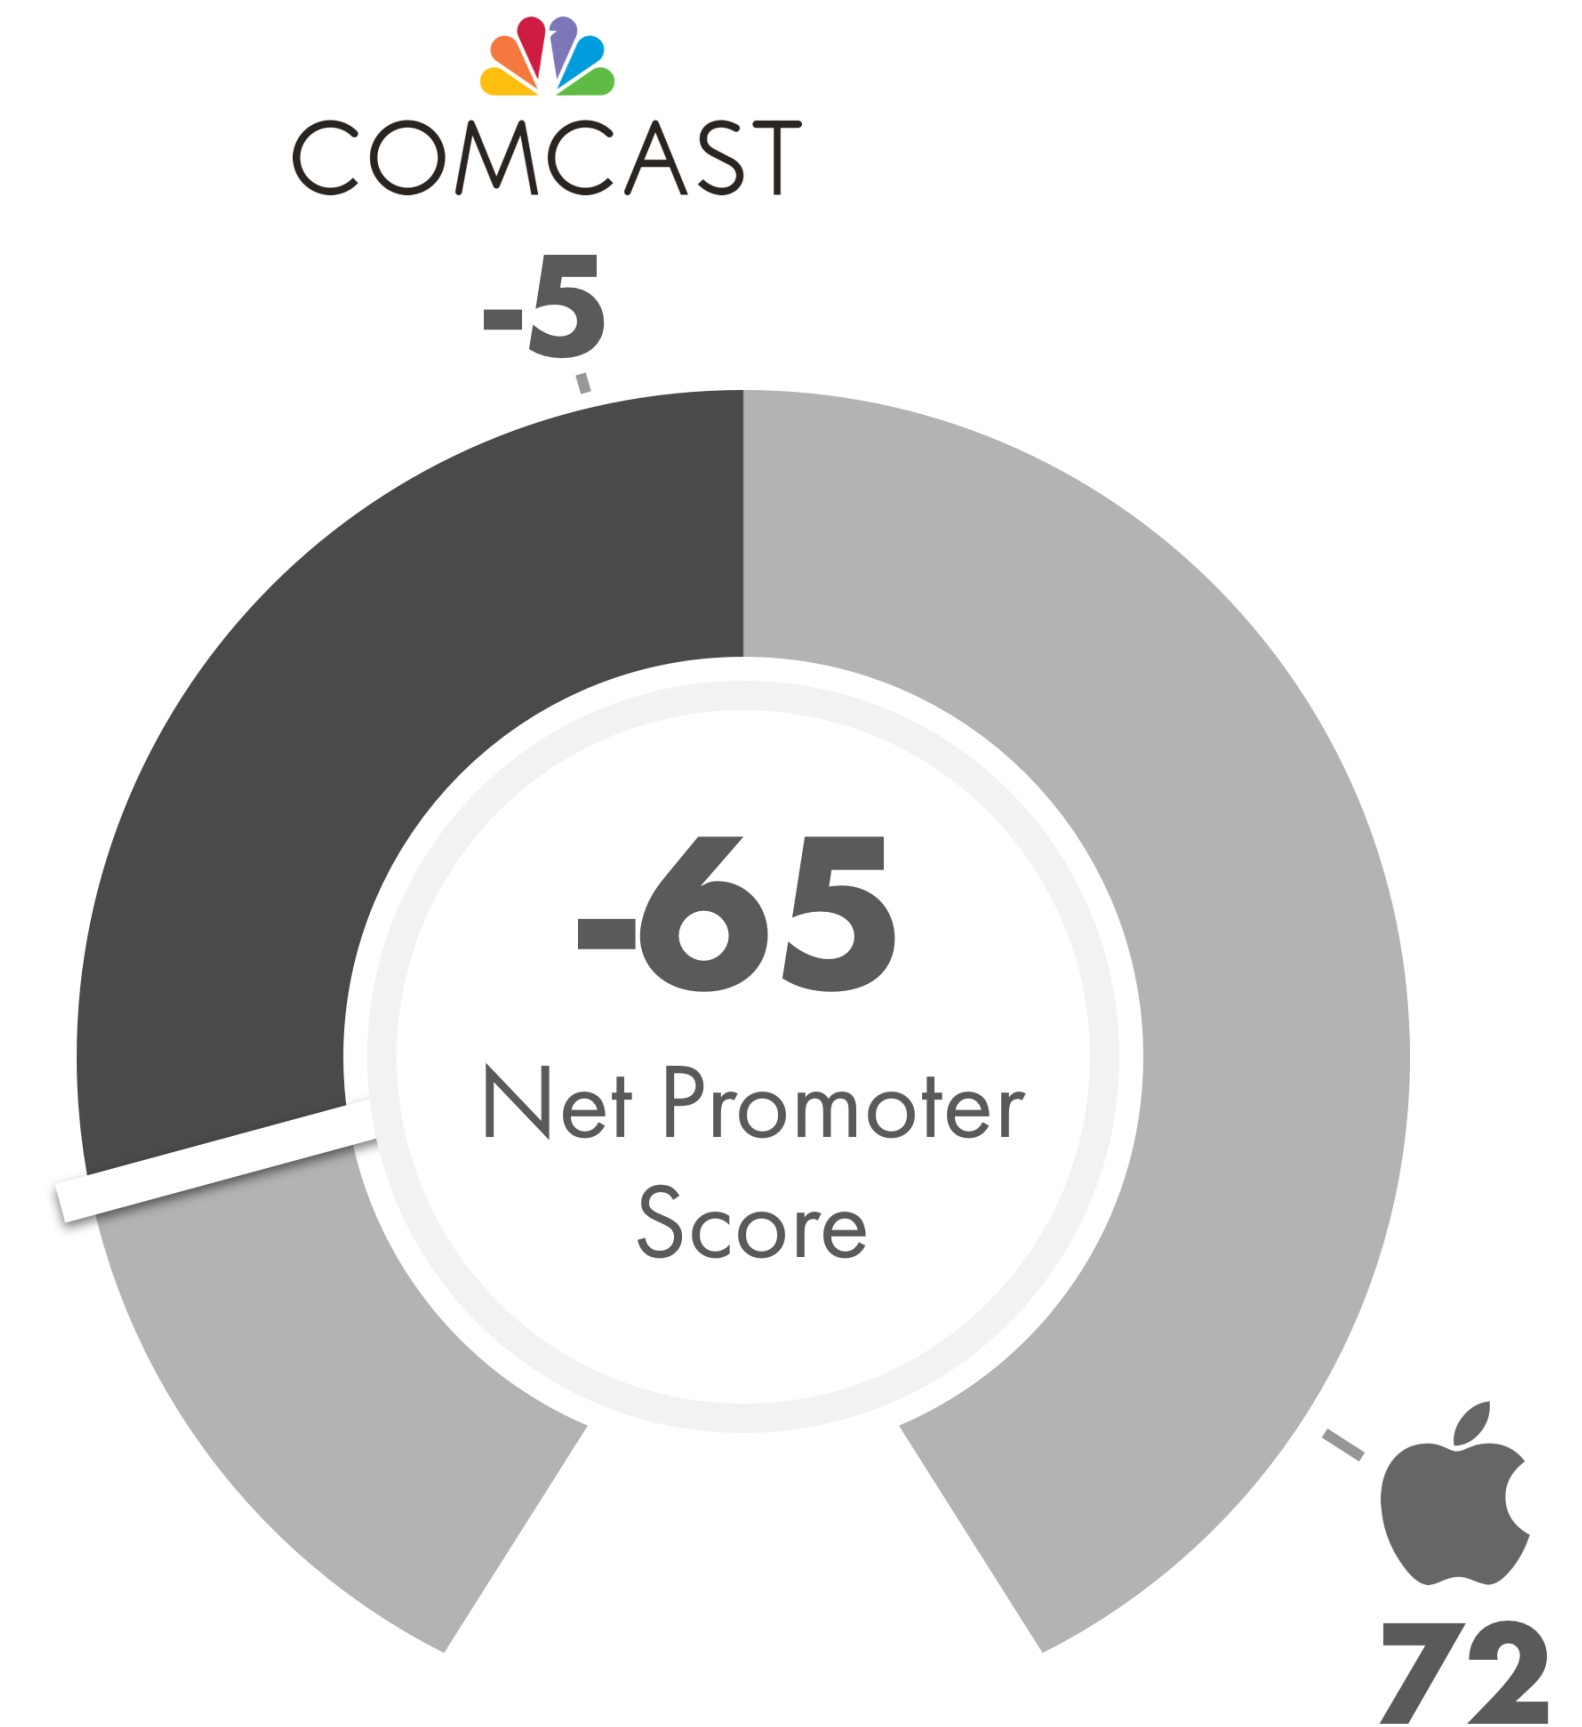

Who's next?

By 2025, which public market industries will experience the most value transfer or erosion due to technology disruption?

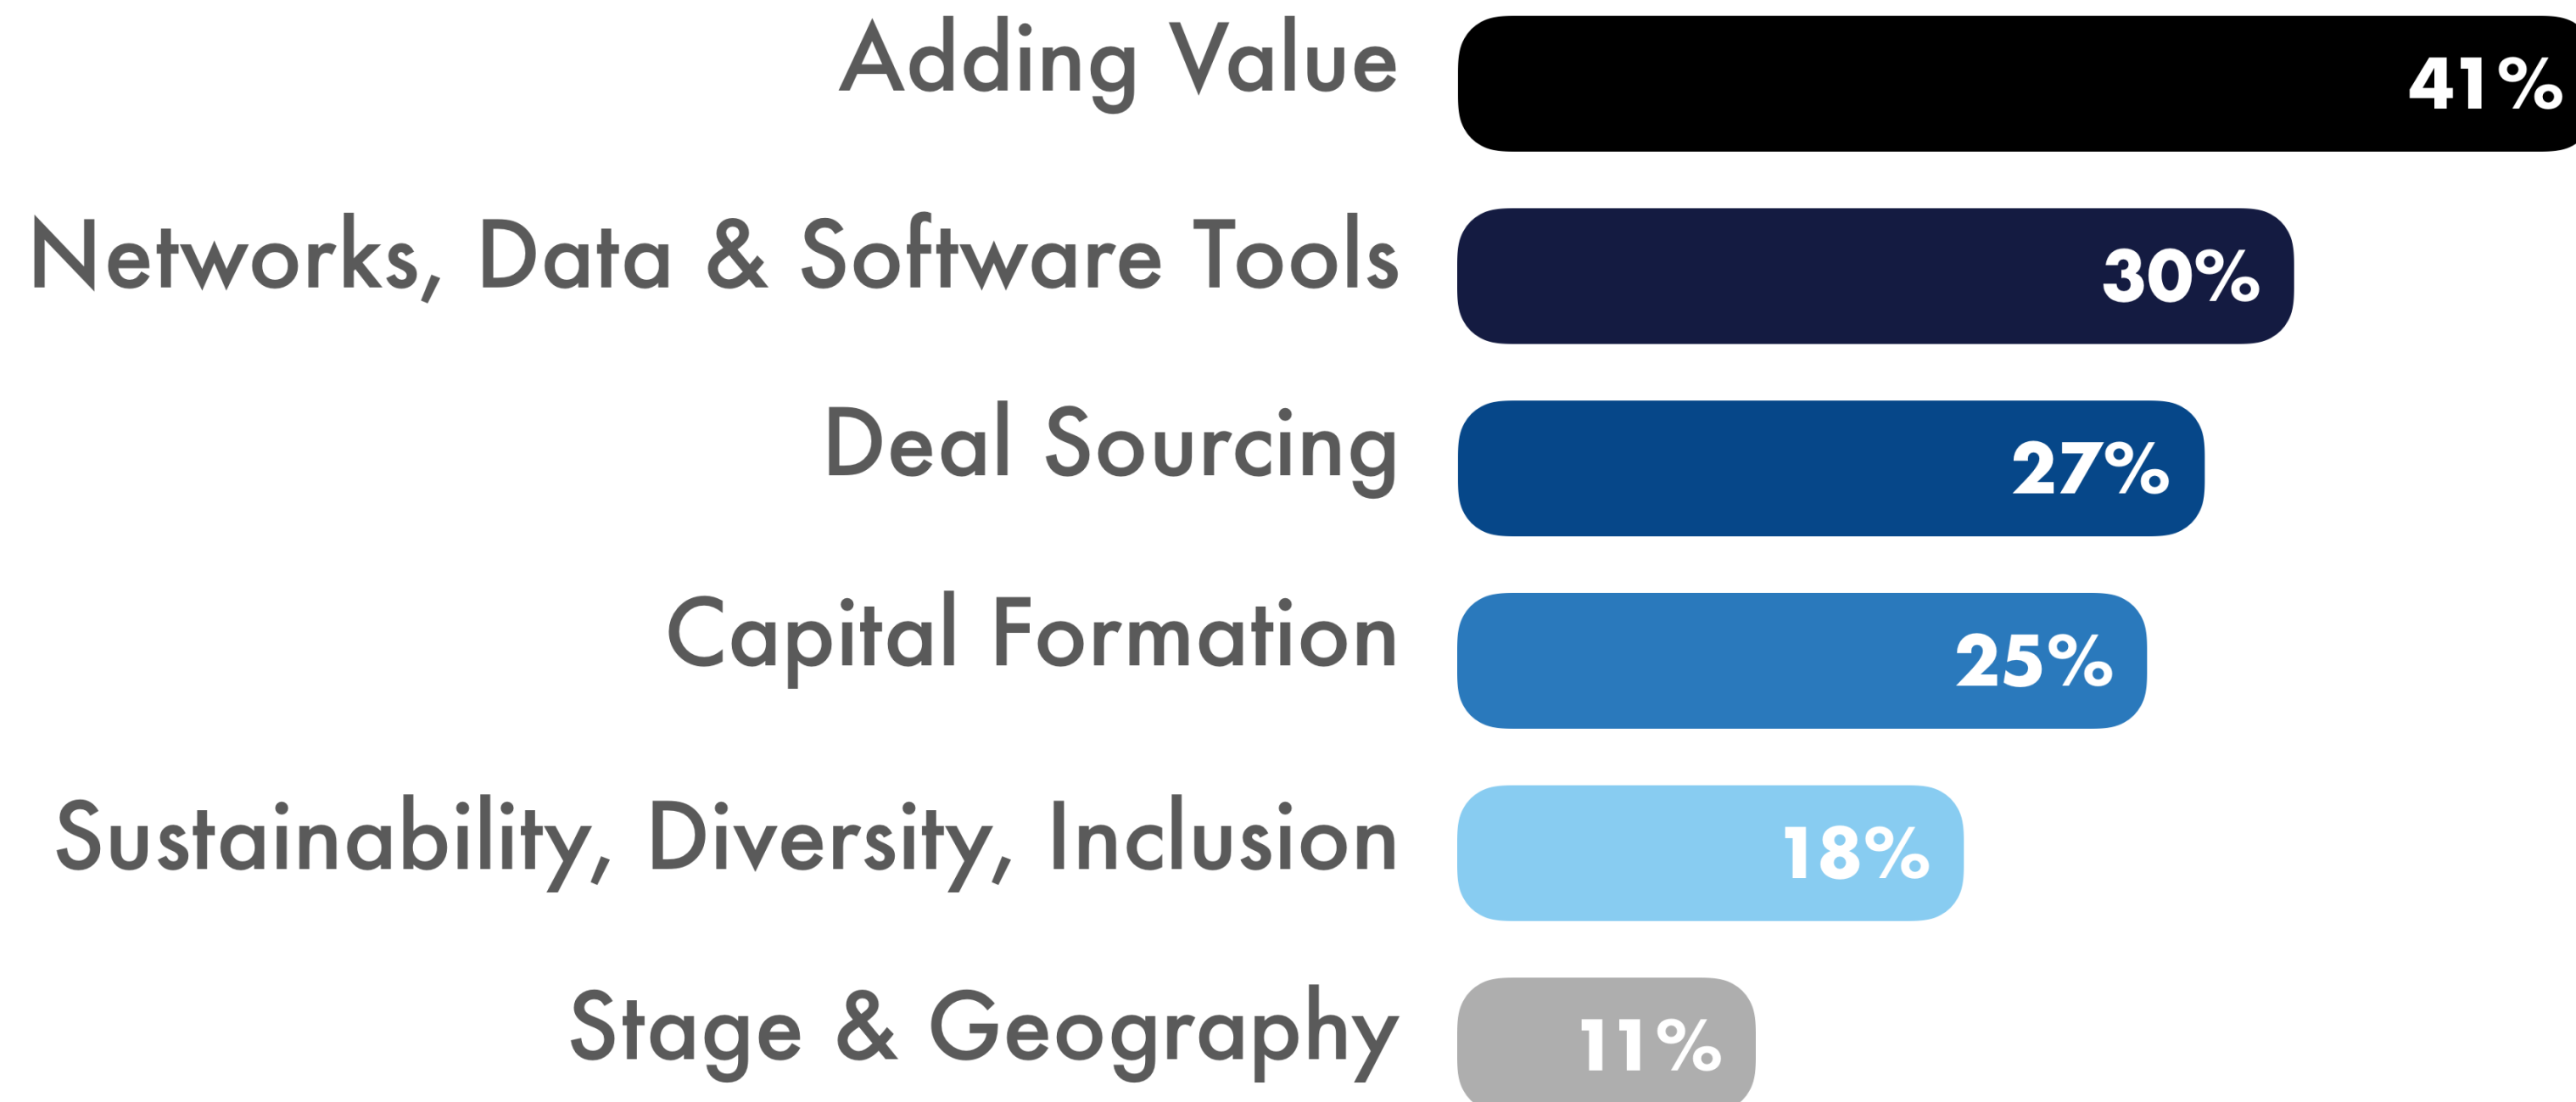

How likely is it that you would recommend raising a micro VC fund to a friend or colleague?

Something to explore further...?

What are the most valuable themes to share insights about in our next VC partner survey?

Survey Feedback

“Sadly mainstream media has not painted the VC industry in a good light with respect to women– worse than Wall Street. The VC industry, once considered a noble profession, must fix this.”

THE
FUND

“I would be most interested in examples of ‘best of breed’ innovative companies and sectors that other VCs are most excited about and why.”
